

Martial Arts Instructor – Leadership & Growth Opportunity (Houston Galleria)

Location: Houston, Texas

Employment Type: Full-Time

Are you passionate about martial arts and ready to make a lasting impact on others? We're looking for a full-time Martial Arts Instructor to join our award-winning Leaders for Life Martial Arts Academy at our Houston Galleria location — one of the most established and respected academies in Texas.

This isn't just a job — it's a career path with mentorship, purpose, and the potential for partnership or ownership.

Position Highlights:

- Starting Salary: $45,000 per year
- Additional Income: Commissions & performance bonuses
- Health Insurance Support: monthly stipend toward health coverage
- Growth Path: Potential partnership or academy ownership opportunity
- Location: Houston Galleria area (vibrant, high-traffic, family-centered community)

What We Offer:

- A large, enthusiastic student base and a strong team of assistant instructors
- A proven business model that develops leaders — not just students
- A Comprehensive mentorship from a team with decades of experience
- A positive, professional, and growth-oriented culture
- A chance to live and work in the heart of Houston's thriving Galleria area

Who We're Looking For:

You're a motivated, teachable leader with a passion for martial arts, personal growth, and helping others reach their full potential. You love teaching, inspiring, and being part of a mission that changes lives.

Martial arts experience is preferred — but leadership heart, integrity, and a strong work ethic are essential. Certified Instructor preferred.

Benefits Offered

Medical Insurance

Compensation Range

45k plus commissions

To apply, please email resume to newberry.tina@gmail.com